

DISTRIBUTED ADVERSARIAL GRAPH-COMPUTATION ENGINE

LATTICE9

Probabilistic Topology Reasoning Framework

A formal specification of the mathematical, structural, and operational foundations for automated graph cognition in adversarial infrastructure. Presenting Graph Field Theory, loopy belief confidence propagation, attack economics optimization, Pearlman causal interventions, and distributed quorum-based computation.

Technical Whitepaper v9.0.0-PRO-CLAW

Classification: Open Systems Architecture Research

Lattice9 Core Research & Engineering Team

Reference Architecture Specification